Guest favourite: Schloss Liebenstein Castle

Travel back to a time of feuding lords and ladies at the fairy-tale 13th-century Schloss Liebenstein Medieval Castle, perched high above the Rhine. You will be driven up to the castle, past steeply terraced vineyards and, on arrival, welcomed with a smile and a refreshing aperitif by our host, the charming Klaus, the castle's owner.

Klaus's vivid stories include the the famous warrior knights who once lived here and clashed with the family at the neighbouring rival castle of Sterrenberg, which is why the two castles are today known as the 'hostile brothers'.

Feel immersed in the spirit and history of medieval Europe as you savour your drink while gazing out over the stunning views of the flowing Rhine, the perfect picturesque backdrop before a delicious lunch paired with local Rhine wines.
